DETAILED ACTION

This is a first office action on the merits of patent application S. N. 10/630,670.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear if the ratchet block recited in line 2 of claim 1 is the same ratchet block recited in lines 11-12 of the same claim.

Claim 1 recites that the first and second teeth slots are respectively spaced apart. However, the positional relationship between the elements is unclear since it is unknown whether the aforementioned spacing occurs circumferentially, axially, or otherwise. For examination purposes, it was assumed that an axial spacing was being claimed.

Concerning claim 2, the meaning of the expression "one third of the width of the teeth slot between the first and second teeth slot is alternatively arranged." For rejection purposes, it was assumed that it referred to the juxtaposition of one third of the slots' width among circumferentially adjacent slots.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 3-4, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chiang et al. ('363).

Chiang et al. disclose a ratchet pawl (Fig. 4), a wheel seat (17), a ratchet block module, ratchet blocks (14, 15), a teeth disc (13), a series of ratchet teeth (131), a first and second teeth slot (Fig. 5, 171, 172), first and second ring slots (172, 173), individual ratchet blocks (142, 152), first and second binding rings (141, 151), and means for reducing the distance of reverse rotation (Fig. 7).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 2 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion
